IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Daddy, P. O. Paulette, who passed away two years ago today, December 30, 1953.

Two years ago you left us,
So sad was that day.
God took you in his loving arms,
And then turned out the light.

He said good-bye to no one,
His loving heart had ceased to be,
Before we knew he was gone.

He did not fail to do his best,
His heart was true and tender,
He worked hard for those he left,
And they ever will remember.

Some think that we are happy,
Because they see us smile;
But dear Daddy they will never know
How much we hurt inside.

Vera

Vera, Dec. 28.- "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable, unto God; which is your reasonable service." -Romans 12-1.

Christmas was certainly a beautiful day, warm and bright. Many attended church. People were certainly remembered by their friends far and near, with cards and gifts, and many happy home gatherings.

Mr. Sonny Watson visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Sunday.

The Christmas Pageant was held at New Hope Church Friday night. It was attended by a large crowd.

The W. M. U. Society will have its Secret Pal Party at the Rev. Charles Addington's on Friday night. I hope many may be present.

Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Mazie and Harriette visited in the home of Mrs. Willie Moses on Sunday.

Mr. Benjamin Beasley is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover P. Beasley during the holidays.

The community was saddened by the car accident near Vera on Saturday night. Mr. Jesse Gunter was struck by a car and killed.

Mr. T. C. Harvey and family visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson on Sunday night.

Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Jr. and children, Sandra Kay and T. C. III visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey Sr. Monday night.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reynolds on Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Mazie and Harriette.

The men are enjoying hunting this pretty weather, but are not killing many deer.

Miss Mazie Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harvey in Richmond on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banton have moved into their new house near Hollywood.

In Fashion Now

As usual, soft colors will be very important for spring. For those who can afford them, little furs in new blond and creamy colors, will be smart. There are several new colors in mink, chinchilla and, ever popular, muskrat.

Fur trim on pastel colored coats will be the same tone as the pink, blue or yellow coat it adorns. Jewels will be used for trim on both afternoon and evening dresses. Rich heavy lace will be another outstanding trim.

High-domed rings and larger-than-ever earrings will be worn for cocktail and evening occasions. The many strands of beads, so popular for the past couple of seasons, will look dated. Jeweled hair ornaments worn in the most unexpected places will be a common sight—so the style-setters say.

The smart hat will be worn as far forward on the head as gravity will allow. Flower trim, as always for the spring, will be the most outstanding. Velvet will be vying with straw for the most often used material for spring hats.

Embroidery will be used for trim on linen and cotton and as an all-over pattern. Batiste, patterned with embroidered carnations and sewn with dewy crystal beading, will make one of the most outstanding formal gowns of the coming season.
